ODELL LOWDER, )
Defendant. )

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 15th day of June, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to relief.

IT FURTHER APPEARED that, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor child, alimony, and support of the minor child, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child of the parties, namely, Darlene Lowder, now of the age of 22 months, be, and it is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $20.00 per month for the support and maintenance of the minor child, the first payment to begin on the 15th day of June, 1948, and a like sum on the 15th of each and every month hereafter until said child shall reach the age of majority.

4. That all of the community property of the parties described in plaintiff's Complaint, and also any right, title and interest the defendant may have in and to a building constructed on land and real estate ownedby plaintiff's parents, and located in Alameda, Idaho, at 610 East Cedar Street, is the sole and exclusive property of the plaintiff, and defendant has no further right, title or interest in or to the same.

| WILLIAM J. MARLOWE, Plaintiff and Cross-Defendant, -vs.- GRACE L. MARLOWE, Defendant and Cross-Complainant. | DECREE OF DIVORCE |

This cause came regularly on for trial on this 17th day of June, 1948, at 10:00 A. M., pursuant to a due and legal setting thereof by order heretofore entered by this court, and on file herein.

That the plaintiff and the cross-defendant appeared in person and also by his attorney, H. J. Swanson of Pocatello, Idaho, and the defendant and cross-complainant appeared in person and also by her attorney, Roy L. Black of Pocatello, Idaho. Thereupon all parties announced themselves ready for trial, whereupon the parties stipulated in open court regarding the disposition of the property described in the complaint, which stipulation has now been reduced to writing, signed by the respective parties, and approved by their attorneys, and which stipulation relating to said property is by this court, after due examination and consideration, in all respects, approved.

Thereupon the plaintiff was duly and regularly sworn and also one corroborating witness was sworn and the plaintiff testified as to all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint, and thereupon rested; that the defendant and cross-complainant introduced no evidence relating to the allegations of her answer or to the allegations of her cross-complaint, but failed so to do.

Thereupon the matter was submitted to the Court for a decision and the Court having heard the evidence offered by the plaintiff and cross-defendant and having considered the same, and the defendant having offered no proof whatsoever either in support of the allegations of her answer, or of the allegations of her cross-complaint, the Court finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and in all respects fully established by the evidence herein, and the Court finds that none of the allegations contained in the Answer of the defendant are established by the evidence, or are true except in so far as any of the allegations of the answer admit the allegations of the complaint. And the court further finds that no proof having been offered by the cross-complainant in support of any of the allegations of her cross-complaint, that the cross-complainant has failed to prove or establish any of the allegations of her cross-complaint. The court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for in the complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and that the cross-complainant is not entitled to any relief whatsoever under her cross-complaint.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, WILLIAM J. MARLOWE, and the defendant, GRACE L. MARLOWE, be and the same hereby are severed, cancelled, and set aside, and that the said plaintiff and the defendant be and each hereby is restored to the status of single persons.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all of the property described in the plaintiff's complaint be and the same hereby is decreed to be the sole and separate property of the plaintiff, WILLIAM J. MARLOWE, and that by stipulation entered into in open court and thereafter reduced to writing, signed by the respective parties, and on file herein, it is further adjudged and decreed that all of the said property shall be sold for cash at such reasonable price as it may be sold for and that from said proceeds all of the debts and obligations owing by the plaintiff, William J. Marlowe, particularly the items listed in the files, and any other by him owing, including an additional reasonable attorney's fee of $50.00 to be paid to Roy L. Black, attorney for the defendant, and reasonable attorney's fee to be paid to H. J. Swanson, attorney for the plaintiff, William J. Marlowe, and any expense of effecting such a sale, shall all be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said property, and that thereafter the net remaining sum of said proceeds shall be divided equally between the parties to this action.

That the property included in said stipulation and so stipulated to be sold, and hereby decreed to be sold is the following described real property in Bingham County, Idaho, and described as follows:

> Lots Six, Seven, Eight, Nine, Ten, and Eleven, in Block Twenty-Six, in the Townsite of Fort Hall, according to the official survey thereof as the same is duly recorded, together with the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging,

And also the following described personal property, namely:

> One horse and saddle; One Ford Model "A" coupe; also the household furniture located in the three-room house situated on the land above described consisting generally of cooking utensils, one bedroom set, two large rugs, two small rugs, chairs, tables, a radio

IT IS ALSO ORDERED AND DECREED That the defendant and cross-complainant join with the plaintiff and cross-defendant, in the execution of necessary deeds, to enable the conveyance of an acceptable, legal, valid title to any purchaser of the above real estate, or any part thereof, and also that she join in the execution and the delivery of any required bill or bills of sale; and that in the event of her refusal so to do that all her interest in the proceeds of the above property be cancelled and annulled.

ALMA M. DILTS, Plaintiff,

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 14th day of June, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant did not appear, and it being shown to the Court, by affidavit attached to the summons herein, that personal service of the summons and complaint in this action was had on the defendant in Twin Falls County on the 10th day of May, 1948; it appearing that the defendant has not made any appearance herein since the date of said service, and that, on the 12th day of June, 1948, the Clerk of our Court entered the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law; now, ~~motion~~ of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that said entry of default be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and testified, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to residence. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties, that there are no children born of said marriage and no community property, and that for more than one year preceding the commencement of this action the defendant has neglected to furnish plaintiff the common necessaries of life, he having the ability so to do, are all true.

From the evidence thus adduced and the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of non-support and wilful neglect.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the said plaintiff, ALMA M. DILTS and the said defendant, D. A. DILTS, be dissolved, and the same hereby is dissolved; that said parties be, and each of them is, freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is, restored to her maiden name of ALMA M. VICKERS.

SAMUEL J. SWENGEL,

Plaintiff,

vs.

HENNIE SWENGEL,

Defendant.

The above entitled cause of action came on record to be heard in the regular June term of Court before the Honorable J. W. Porter, Judge of said Court, on this 7th day of June, 1948.

The plaintiff appeared in person and with his witnesses, the defendant appearing not, and after due examination of the records and files in said cause it appears to the court that the defendant, Hennie Swengel, has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that her time for appearance has expired; and it further appearing from the records and files in said cause that the defendant is not in a military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, and it is not necessary for the plaintiff to furnish bond, an order having heretofore being made directing that the entry of the default of the defendant be made, and the default being entered.

Whereupon, witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to said testimony and evidence, both oral and documentary, offered in said cause, finds as follows:

That the plaintiff, Samuel J. Swengel, is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho.

The court further finds that the plaintiff, Samuel J. Swengel, and the defendant, Hennie Swengel, were intermarried on or about the 12th day of December, 1933, and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

That there was born the issue of said marriage two minor children, Gerald Swengel, age 12 years, and Melvin Swengel, age 11 years.

The court further finds that the said plaintiff, Samuel J. Swengel, and the defendant, Hennie Swengel, did not during their coveture acquire any community property, but the court finds that after said marriage and on or about the 7th day of August, 1944, the plaintiff did inherit from the estate of his father and mother, Willard S. and Rosetta May Swengel, who are both deceased, certain moneys and property, and from the proceeds of said moneys and property so inherited from the estate of his mother and father the plaintiff did purchase certain real property located in Minidoka County, Idaho, and particularly described as follows:

That part of the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter (SW¼NE¼) of Section Twenty-one (21), in Township Nine (9) South, Range Twenty-four (24) East of the Boise Meridian, lying north and west of the right of way of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, subject to all ditch, highway and other rights of way, containing fifteen (15) acres, more or less;

together with certain personal property consisting of the following:

One 2-Way Plow, one Garden Plow, one 2-Section Harrow, one Mowing Machine, one Hay Rake, one Hay Derrick with cable and Jackson fork, one Milk Cart, one Cultivator, one Fresno, one Bean Cultivator, two Rolls of Woven Wire, and miscellaneous farm tools and equipment.

And that the court finds that at all times during said coveture and from and after the purchase of said real property and personal property, which said real property and personal property and the whole thereof was purchased from separate funds inherited by the said plaintiff; that said property was never mixed with or became community or mixed with any community earnings of the said plaintiff and defendant; and the court further finds that the said property was the sole, separate and individual property and estate of the plaintiff herein, and which said real property and personal property is hereinafter particularly set forth and described.

The court further finds that on or about the 21st day of September, 1942, the defendant and without cause or reason or due to any fault of the said plaintiff did abandon and desert the plaintiff and did cease to reside or live with said plaintiff, and that for more than a year wholely preceding plaintiff's action did abandon and desert the said plaintiff and has not resided with said plaintiff for a period of more than one year next preceding the filing of plaintiff's action.

The court further finds that the defendant did abandon said minor children, leaving the said children wholely and completely in the custody of the plaintiff, and since the abandonment and desertion of the plaintiff and the minor children by the defendant the said plaintiff has at all times had the care, control and custody of the minor children, and who have at all times resided with said plaintiff; and the court finds that the plaintiff is a proper person to have the care and control and custody of said minor children.

The court finds that it is a proper matter for the entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be dissolved and that a decree of divorce be and is hereby ordered in favor of the plaintiff, Samuel J. Swengel, and against the defendant, Hennie Swengel.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff is the sole owner and holder of the following described real property as his sole separate estate, to-wit:

That part of the Southwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter (SW¼NE¼) of Section Twenty-one (21), in Township Nine (9) South, Range Twenty-four (24) East of the Boise Meridian, lying north and west of the right of way of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, subject to all ditch, highway and other rights of way, containing fifteen (15) acres, more or less, in Minidoka County, Idaho.

That the said plaintiff is the sole owner and holder as his separate and individual estate of the following described personal property:

One 2-Way Plow, one Garden Plow, one 2-Section Harrow, one Mowing Machine, one Hay Rake, one Hay Derrick with cable and Jackson fork, one milk cart, one cultivator, one Fresno, one bean cultivator, two rolls woven wire, and miscellaneous farm tools and equipment.

And it is therefore decreed that the defendant, Hennie Swengel, be and is hereby forever permanently barred, enjoined and foreclosed from asserting or claiming to assert any right, title or interest in or to said real property or in or to said personal property against this plaintiff or any person claiming, owning, or holding under the said plaintiff, and that each and all of the said real and personal property be and is hereby decreed to be the sole separate estate and property of the plaintiff, and that title of the plaintiff in and to said real property be and is hereby forever quieted in said plaintiff against the defendant, Hennie Swengel, or any person or persons claiming under her.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be and is hereby granted the care, control and custody of the minor children, Gerald Swengel, age 12 years, and Melvin Swengel, age 11 years.

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me at my chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her witnesses and the plaintiff appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files of said cause that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the time of appearance of the defendant has expired; that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered in said cause, the court being fully advised in the premises and finding that the defendant is not in a military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, and it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers.

Whereupon, witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to the testimony offered in said cause, free of all legal objections thereto, finds as follows:

It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Thomas Barker, had been duly and regularly served with summons and copy of complaint outside the State of Idaho and at Albany, State of New York, pursuant to law and affidavit and order for service of summons outside the State of Idaho heretofore filed in said cause, and that said defendant did not appear in said action or answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint on file herein within the time limited by law, and that the Clerk of said Court upon the affidavit of the plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America and pursuant to an order of said Court heretofore filed and directing that the default of said defendant be entered in the premises, duly and regularly entered the default of the said defendant according to law.

Wherefore, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises, aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Helen Moxley, and the defendant, Floyd Moxley, be, and the same are hereby, wholly and absolutely dissolved, and that said parties be, and they are hereby, forever freed from the obligation thereof, and that a decree of absolute divorce be, and the same is hereby, rendered and entered herein in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said property settlement is equitable, fair and just, and that said property settlement agreement be, and the same is hereby, duly approved and confirmed, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that all property of every kind, character and/or description, which now stands of record in the name of the plaintiff and/or which is now in the possession of or under the control of the plaintiff be, and the same, and each and every part thereof, is hereby set aside, transferred, awarded, set over, conveyed, assigned and decreed to the plaintiff, Helen Moxley, as her sole and separate property, free and clear of and from any and all claims of the defendant, Floyd Moxley, therein or thereto.

And it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Virginia Moxley, Dolores Moxley, and Sally Rae Moxley, and each of them, be, and the same are hereby, awarded to the plaintiff, Helen Moxley, and that the defendant, Floyd Moxley, be, and he is hereby, directed, required and ordered to pay to the plaintiff, Helen Moxley, the sum of fifteen dollars each and every month for the support and maintenance of each of said minor children until such child shall have reached the age of eighteen years; and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the first of said payments shall be made on or before the 15th day of July, 1948, and that a like payment shall be made on or before the 15th day of each and every calendar month thereafter for and during the full time aforesaid.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the above entitled District Court on the 12th day of April, 1948; CALDWELL AND ALEXANDERSON appearing as counsel for plaintiff, and the defendant having been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint in said action, and defendant having failed to appear herein, in person or by counsel, and said defendant having failed to appear or plead to said complaint within the time required by law, or at all, and his default having been duly entered, witnesses were sworn and testified;

AND THE COURT having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in said action, and it thereby having been made to appear to this Court that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Yakima, Washington on the 11th day of May, 1935, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; and that the plaintiff is now, and for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action, has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

That there is one minor child the issue of this marriage, to-wit: a son, named Jay Dee Michael Ramage, born August 29, 1937.

That there are no community property interests to be adjudicated between the parties hereto;

And the Court having further found that on or about the month of March, 1946, the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, wilfully and without cause deserted and abandoned the plaintiff and ever since said date has continued and still continues to so wilfully and without cause, desert and abandon said plaintiff and to live separate and apart from her; which said separation and desertion on the part of the defendant was the voluntary separation by said defendant from the plaintiff with the intent and purpose on the part of the said defendant then and now to desert the plaintiff and that said defendant is guilty of wilful desertion.

That all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and are sustained by the evidence and proofs submitted upon said hearing and that plaintiff is entitled to the Decree of Divorce and to the relief as prayed for in her Complaint and that said Decree should be entered accordingly;

That all of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by said defendant by his refusal to plead to or to answer plaintiff's complaint in said action and by said defendant's refusal and failure to appear in said action, to appear at the trial of said action, or to offer any evidence at the hearing and trial of said action;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE:

(1) That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff RETA G. RAMAGE and the defendant, JOHN D. RAMAGE, be dissolved and held for naught and that said parties be absolutely divorced from each other.

Ramage, and that defendant be perpetually estopped, debarred and enjoined from interfering with the control of said minor child, reserving the right, however, of the defendant to visit said child at proper times and places.

JUL 2 - 48

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in open court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 2nd day of July, I948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of I940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that due to the fault of the defendant, the plaintiff and defendant have been living separate and apart for more than five full years without cohabitation as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; and

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of the minor children, and that the defendant should pay to the plaintiff a reasonable sum for the support and maintenance of said minor children; and

The Court further finds that the parties hereto made and entered into a property settlement agreement on the 8th day of June, 1948, which is in words and figures as follows:

"PROPERTY SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, Made and executed in triplicate this 8th day of June, 1948, by and between ERNEST D. STODDARD, party of the first part, sometimes hereinafter referred to as the husband, and RUBY STODDARD, party of the second part, sometimes hereinafter referred to as the wife, both of the city of Boise, county of Ada, state of Idaho, WITNESSETH:

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 9th day of July, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed, or neglected, to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of the military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

| PHILIP NASH, Defendant, | ) | |

THIS ACTION came on regularly to be heard before the Court sitting without jury on the 19th day of July, 1948, the plaintiff and cross defendant, Betty Jo Nash, appearing in person and by her attorney, J. F. Cromwell, of Boise, Idaho, and the defendant, Philip Nash, appearing by one of his attorneys, Raymond D. Givens.

It appearing to the Court that the defendant was served personally with summons and copy of complaint herein on the 7th day of May, 1948, in Elmore County, Idaho, and that said defendant thereafter appeared in this suit and filed answer to complaint and cross complaint; and that thereafter the plaintiff and cross defendant filed answer to said cross complaint. The records and files hereof appearing to be in due, regular and proper form, the Court proceeded with the trial of this suit. Witnesses were duly sworn and testified for and in behalf of plaintiff and cross defendant and the cause was then submitted to the Court for consideration and decision.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the parties hereto intermarried, the one to the other, at Albuquergue, New Mexico, on or about November 1, 1947, and continuously since said date have been and now are husband and wife; that the plaintiff and cross defendant herein has resided in, and has been a resident of, the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to filing this suit; that the parties hereto have no children but that plaintiff expects to deliver a child, probably about the middle of October, 1948, which child is the issue of the marriage of the parties to this suit; that the parties to this suit have acquired no community property, either real or personal.

It appearing further, by stipulation of respective counsel that the parties hereto have entered into a just and equitable property settlement; which settlement is approved except for Paragraph IV thereof, and as approved is made a part of this decree as hereinafter provided.

It appearing further that all of the material allegations in plaintiff's and cross defendant's complaint are true and are supported by evidence introduced by her and corraborated by testimony of other witness; and that allegations made in defendant's and cross complainant's cross complaint are not true; and that plaintiff and cross defendant is entitled to a divorce from the defendant and cross complainant on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the Court being fully advised in the premises both to the law and the facts:

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of J. F. Cromwell, attorney for plaintiff and cross defendant, and good cause appearing therefore;

It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE, as follows:

1. Plaintiff and cross defendant, Betty Jo Nash, shall have the absolute custody and control of the child of the parties hereto after its birth; provided, however, that during the first four (4) years of said childs life defendant and cross complainant, Philip Nash, shall have the right to visit said child at least twice a month and at such hours and places as are agreeable to plaintiff and cross defendant; and, provided further, that said times and places of visits shall be arranged in advance with said plaintiff and cross defendant; and, provided further that after the first four years of said childs life, said defendant and cross complainant shall have the right to visit said child and to have said child visit him at any reasonable time and place.

2. Said defendant and cross complainant shall pay for the use and benefit of said plaintiff and cross defendant and of the said child after its birth the sum of $75.00 per month; said monthly payments to be made on or before the 22nd day of July, August, September, October, November, and December, 1948, and the 22nd day of January, 1949. Said payments are to be made as aforesaid to Raymond D. Givens, attorney for defendant and cross complainant, and J. F. Cromwell, attorney for plaintiff and cross defendant, to be held and disbursed by them jointly according to the terms of this decree. Said funds shall be disbursed by said attorneys first to pay the medical and hospital expenses incidental to the birth of said child; and the remainer thereof shall be disbursed as follows:

   The sum of $37.50 per month for the months of July, August, September, October, November, and December, 1948, and January, 1949, shall be paid to the plaintiff and cross defendant herein for her personal expenses; the remainder of the aggregate of said monthly payments shall be paid to said plaintiff and cross defendant herein for the maintenance and support, after its birth, of said child of the parties hereto.

3. At the present time, and until after the birth of said child, the Court refrains from making any order determining the permanent support money to be paid by said defendant and cross complainant for the purpose of supporting and maintaining said minor child; but after the birth of said child and upon motion of plaintiff and cross defendant this Court will reopen this suit for the purpose of then determining such permanent support money to be paid by said defendant and cross complainant for the support of said child.

4. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, AND DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Betty Jo Nash and Philip Nash the parties hereto, and the same hereby are, wholly dissolved and that the parties hereto are free from the obligations and duties thereof and that they, and each of them, are absolutely free from all marital restraint and obligation to each other.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the court on the 21st day of July, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Pete Leguineche, and the defendant not appearing in person or by attorney;

And upon such hearing, it satisfactorily appearing to the court that the defendant herein, Eugene Clanton Vail, was duly served with the process herein, and further that the defendant has appeared and filed in the said action his acknowledgment of service, appearance, and authorization of default, and his refusal to plead to the amended complaint of plaintiff, on file herein, and that the said defendant did authorize the entry of default against him for his failure to so plead, and the time for so answering or otherwise pleading to said complaint, having expired; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court from an affidavit filed by the plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatsoever, and the default of the defendant,

Eugene Clanton Vail, having been duly entered according to law, and the court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of said plaintiff and in support of her complaint and the cause having been thereupon submitted, and upon consideration of said testimony, the court finds that the defendant has been guilty of wilful neglect and has also been guilty of treating plaintiff in an extremely cruel and inhuman manner and has inflicted upon plaintiff great and grevious mental suffering and mental anguish, and as a result whereof, plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved and set aside.

The court further finds plaintiff and defendant have two minor children, to-wit, a boy named Gene Vail age one (1) year, and a boy named James Carl Vail, age six (6) months, and that the plaintiff is the fit and proper person to have the custody and control of the said minor children.

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have made and entered into a Separation Agreement in words and figures as follows:

SEPARATION AGREEMENT.

This Separation Agreement made and entered into this 21st day of June, 1948, by and between Helen Vail and

Eugene Clanton Vail, Wife and Husband respectively,

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties hereto are now, and for a long time prior hereto have been wife and husband and irreconcilable disputes and differences have arisen and do now exist between them, as a result whereof they have separated and are now living separate and apart, and further, as a result whereof the said wife as plaintiff, has filed in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Ada, an action for divorce, and the said parties have become firmly and finally convinced that it is impossible for them now, or in the future to live together as wife and husband; and,

WHEREAS, There have been born as the issue of the said marriage two minor children, a boy, named Gene Vail, age one (1) year and a boy, named James Carl Vail, age six (6) months; and,

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to settle amicably between themselves the issues involving the custody of the said minor children and to provide for their support and maintenance,

NOW THEREFORE, the parties have agreed and do hereby agree as follows:

That the said wife shall have the custody and control of the said minor children, subject to reasonable rights of visitation on the part of the said husband at reasonable times and under reasonable circumstances and that the said husband shall pay to the said wife for the support and maintenance of each of the said minor children the sum of Thirty-five Dollars ($35.00) per month during their minority.

That each of the parties shall have as his or her sole and separate property, free and clear from any claim or right on the part of the other, all property, accumulations and rights acquired by either from and after the date of this agreement, and all such property, accumulations and rights so acquired hereafter by either of the parties shall be the sole and separate property of the party so acquiring the same, subject only to the provisions for payment of support and maintenance hereinabove provided, and this agreement and the terms and provisions hereof are accepted by both and each of the parties in full and complete settlement of all rights of either to property, support, maintenance, and whatsoever rights and privileges as may arise out of the said marital relationship.

This agreement, subject to approval of the court, shall be incorporated in, and made a part of any decree of divorce rendered by any court in any action for divorce between the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands the day and year first above written.

Helen Vail

Eugene Clanton Vail
HUSBAND

The court further finds that such agreement is in all respects fair and equitable;

NOW, THEREFORE, on this 21st day of July, 1948, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed by this court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and set aside and that plaintiff be forever divorced from said defendant;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Separation Agreement hereinabove set forth be approved and confirmed by the court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the said plaintiff have the custody, care and control of the said minor children, Gene Vail, age one (1) year and James Carl Vail, age six (6) months, and that the defendant shall pay to the said plaintiff hereafter for the support and maintenance of the said minor children the sum of Thirty five Dollars ($35.00) per month for each of the said minor children.

#21386

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 23rd day of July, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons and complaint within the state of Idaho as required by law and had failed or neglected to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of the military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant; that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of the minor children of the parties hereto, and that defendant should be compelled to pay a reasonable sum for the support and maintenance of said minor children; and that said defendant should pay to the plaintiff a reasonabbe sum for her attorney's fee, court costs and disbursements of this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

(Ist) That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant; and

(2nd) That the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto, Barbra K. Shipley, age one year and six months, and Retta Karon Shipley, age eight months; and

(3rd) That the defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of twenty five ($25.00) dollars per month for each and every month hereafter commencing on the Ist day of the month following this decree for the support and maintenance of each child until they reach their majority, die, marry, or until the further order of this Court; and

(4th) That defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of $I50.00, attorney fees, and $I5.00, Court costs.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons outside the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer, or otherwise plead to, the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and has not been since the commencement of this action, nor for more than one year prior thereto, in military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to his residence in the State of Idaho, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the parties have lived separate and apart without cohabitation for more than five consecutive years immediately preceeding the commencement of this action, without the fault of the plaintiff, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and be divorced from the defendant.

3. WHEREAS, the parties have agreed among themselves on a settlement of all property rights existing between them, and for the welfare of the child, and for the purpose of settling all their differences, and in consideration of the premises, they covenant and agree:

4. Neither of them, the husband and wife, shall molest the other of them, or compel, or endeavor to compel, the other of them to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any legal proceedings for restitution of conjugal rights, or otherwise, howsoever;

5. From and after the date of this agreement, neither the husband nor the wife shall have any interest in or to any property real, personal, or mixed of the other party, whether now owned or hereafter acquired;

ARDY VEST, :

Defendant. :

The above entitled cause came on for hearing before the undersigned judge of said district court, at Idaho Falls, Bonneville County, Idaho, on this 9th day of July, 1948, the plaintiff appearing in person and by Albaugh, Bloem & Hillman, her attorneys, and no appearance being made by or for the defendant, and the defendant appearing in said cause by stipulation only, which stipulation is on file herein, by and under which stipulation the defendant entered his appearance in said action, submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the Court, refused to demur, answer or plead further, consented that said action might be heard without further notice, and waived findings of fact and conclusions of law in this cause. It further appearing that the Summons in said cause has been duly and regularly served upon said defendant, and no answer, demurrer or other appearance having been made by or for the defendant, except by said stipulation, and the time for answering said complaint having expired, and the default of the defendant having been duly entered herein by the Clerk, the Court heard the evidence adduced by and on behalf of the plaintiff, and being fully advised in the premises finds that the allegations of the complaint are in all respects true and are sustained by the evidence, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint, except as her prayer for relief is modified by said stipulation.

It is therefor ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the plaintiff have, and she is hereby awarded judgment as follows:

1. For an absolute divorce from the defendant, forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties, and restoring the parties to the status of single persons.

2. That the plaintiff have as her sole and separate property and for her sole use and benefit all of her jewelry, wearing apparel and personal belongings, and all of the household goods and furniture owned by the parties to this action, and an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in and to the following described real property situate in Bonneville County, Idaho, to-wit:

> Lots Twenty-three (23), Twenty-four (24), Twenty-five (25), Twenty-six (26) and Twenty-seven (27) in Block Fifty-seven (57) of Crow's Addition to the City of Idaho Falls, Idaho, according to the recorded plat thereof, with the exclusive right to the possession of, and income from, said real property and the whole thereof until Dale Vest, a minor son of the parties hereto, shall arrive at the age of 18 years, provided however, that plaintiff shall be liable for and pay all taxes hereafter levied and assessed against said property, including taxes levied and assessed for the year 1948, and shall keep said property insured against loss by fire for its reasonable insurable value and pay the premiums thereon, while she has the exclusive possession and use thereof. Said insurance, in the event of loss, shall be payable to the parties to this action.

3. That the defendant have as his sole and separate property and for his sole and separate use and benefit an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in and to the above-described real property, subject however, to the right of the plaintiff to possess, occupy and use said premises exclusively until said Dale Vest arrives at the age of 18 years. When the said Dale Vest arrives at the age of 18 years or in the event the said Dale Vest should die before arriving at the age of 18 years, then plaintiff's right to the exclusive possession and use of said premises shall cease and determine and the parties to this action shall thereafter have equal rights in and to the possession and use of said real property as tenants in common.

4. That the defendant shall during the year 1948 pay all delinquent taxes on said real property.

Moffatt, Young & Doane, and the defendant appearing by her attorney, Mr. Sherman P. Furey, Jr. It appeared further that the defendant had been duly and regularly and personally served with summons and complaint, and had filed her answer herein.

Whereupon, the attorneys for plaintiff and the attorney for defendant announced in open court that they were ready for trial and the cause proceeded to trial, and evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint, whereupon both parties rested. The Court being now fully informed in the premises finds that all of the allegations of the complaint are true, that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint in this action has been, a resident of the State of Idaho, and further that plaintiff is entitled to all the relief prayed for in his complaint. (The making of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law have been heretofore waived by the parties hereto by consent in writing filed with the Clerk of the above Court.)

NOW, THEREFORE, It is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same are, hereby absolutely dissolved, and that the parties are, and each of them is, forever freed and released therefrom; and further that the plaintiff be, and hereby is, ordered to pay to the defendant for the care and support of their minor child, to-wit: James M. | THERESA WILTZIUS, Defendant. | ) | |

THIS ACTION, having come on regularly for hearing this day, pursuant to an order of the Court entered herein, which order is based upon a written stipulation signed by the attorneys of record for the respective parties and filed herein, wherein it is stipulated that this cause may be heard and considered by the Court upon its merits of this day; the defendant and cross-complainant appearing in person and with her attorney of record, Wm. S. Hawkins and the plaintiff and cross-defendant failing to appear either in person or by his attorney of record, Mr. J. Ward Arney.

Competent evidence was introduced on behalf of the defendant and cross-plaintiff herein, under the defendant's cross-complaint, and the plaintiff and cross-defendant offered no evidence whatever in support of plaintiff's complaint.

After considering the records and files in this cause and hearing and considering the evidence introduced on behalf of the defendant and cross-plaintiff, the Court finds that this Court has jurisdiction of the parties to this action and has due jurisdiction to hear and consider this cause upon its merits at this time and, the Court further finds, that the defendant and cross-plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce herein.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that the parties hereto have divided their community properties, whereby the plaintiff and cross-defendant is to receive and have, as his sole and separate property, all personal properties now in his possession, including grain, farm machinery, equipment and monies and the plaintiff and cross-defendant has paid to the defendant and cross-plaintiff in full settlement of her community property interests, the sum of $9,000.00 and conveyed to her the household furniture and furnishings and one-half of certain canned goods in storage at Lamont, Washington; which said settlement the Court finds to be fair, just and equitable.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein; now, therefore, upon motion of the attorney for the defendant and cross-plaintiff, it is by the Court, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bond of matrimony heretofore existing between the defendant and cross-plaintiff, Theresa Wiltzius and the plaintiff and cross-defendant, John Wiltzius, Jr., be, and the same is, hereby vacated, dissolved and set aside; and, that the defendant and cross-plaintiff, Theresa Wiltzius, is hereby granted an absolute decree of divorce from the plaintiff and cross-defendant, upon the grounds of Extreme Cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the division of the community property made by the parties hereto is fair, just and equitable and is hereby decreed to be final and complete as to all of the community properties of the parties hereto.

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard this 29th day of June, 1948, in Chambers, at Salmon, Idaho, upon filed stipulation of the attorneys for the parties hereto, the defendant having made appearance in the action by filing a verified Answer to the Complaint on file herein; the plaintiff appearing in person and by C. Walker Lyon, his attorney, and introduced evidence in support of said Complaint, the defendant failing to introduce any evidence whatsoever, by which it appears and the Court found:

That the plaintiff now is, and has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceding the commencement of this action; that the parties hereto were legally married on the 13th day of March, 1944, at Hamilton, Montana, and afterwards resided together as husband and wife;

That it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the material allegations of the complaint are sustained by competent testimony, free and clear from all exceptions as to its competence, admissability and sufficiency, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and that the matters so alleged and proven were sufficient in law to entitle the plaintiff to have a dissolution of his marriage;

That there is one child, the issue of said marriage, namely

Linda Kay Bernard, of the age of two years;

That the defendant is not now a member of the military or naval services of the United States of America;

That the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of said minor child, but it appears to be for the best interests of such minor child that she be in the care and custody of her mother, Betty L. Bernard, the defendant herein, with the right and privilege to the father, Lewis J. Bernard, to visit and have the company of said child at any and all reasonable times, and that the defendant shall not remove the minor child from the State of Idaho without the written order of a competent Court or upon the written consent of the father, Lewis J. Bernard, the plaintiff herein;

Baker, one of the Judges of said Court. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her counsel, Sherman J. Bellwood, and the defendant did not appear either in person or by counsel. It appeared to the Court that the defendant, Thomas Donald, had been duly and regularly served with summons by publication thereof and the mailing of a copy of said summons together with a copy of the complaint on file herein to him at his last known address according to law, and that said defendant did not appear in said action or answer or otherwise plead to plaintiff's complaint on file herein within the time limited by law, and that the Clerk of said Court, upon the affidavit of the plaintiff that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America and pursuant to an order of said Court heretofore filed and directing that the default of said defendant be entered in the premises, duly and regularly entered the default of the said defendant according to law.

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me in my chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, this 1st day of July, 1946, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her witnesses, the defendant appearing not; and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the said defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint and that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered; that the defendant is not in a military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act.

The court being fully advised in the premises and finding it a proper matter to be held at chambers, and upon the default of the defendant.

Whereupon, witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to said testimony and being fully advised in the premises, finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding commencement of this action has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

The court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 14th day of August, 1919, and ever since said time have been husband and wife.

The court finds that there was born the issue of said marriage, who are now minor children, Donald Hilling, age 16 years, and Cora Mae Hilling, age 13 years.

The court finds that the plaintiff and defendant have not acquired any community property save and except for the household goods, which the court finds were paid for almost entirely by the separate earnings of the plaintiff, and the court thereupon finds that each and all of the said community property, consisting of the household goods, be decreed to the said plaintiff.

The court finds that the plaintiff has the care, control and custody of said minor children and has been in the custody of said minor children and is a fit and proper person to have the care, control and custody of said minor children.

The court further finds that the said defendant on or about the 2nd day of July, 1946, did abandon and leave the plaintiff and said minor children and has lived separately and apart from the said plaintiff and said minor children for a period of more than one year next preceding plaintiff's action, which the court finds was due to no fault of the plaintiff.

The court , after listening to said testimony, and finding that the plaintiff had proven all of the material allegations of her complaint, and it is a proper matter for an entry of a decree of divorce.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, AJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Mamie Hilling, and the defendant, C. A. Hilling, be dissolved and a decree of divorce be and is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said plaintiff have the care, control and custody of the minor children, Donald Hilling and Cora Mae Hilling, subject to the right of the defendant to see said children at all reasonable times and places.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff be and is hereby decreed to have and to hold all of the household goods of whatsoever kind and character as her sole,separate and individual property in the State.

The above entitled cause of action came on for hearing before me in my chambers in the City of Rupert, County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, and within the Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Idaho, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his witnesses, and the defendant appearing not, and it appearing from the records and files in said cause that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint; that the said defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America within the meaning of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act, and that the default of the defendant has been duly and regularly entered in said cause; that it is a proper matter to be heard at chambers.

WHEREUPON, witnesses were duly called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of the said plaintiff and against the defendant, and the court after listening to said testimony free of all legal objections thereto, finds as follows:

That the plaintiff now is and for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action is and has been an actual and bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

That the plaintiff and defendant were intermarried on or about the 20th day of April, 1946, and now are and ever since said marriage have been husband and wife.

That there was born the issue of said marriage one minor child, Elna Stanley, age one year.

The court finds that certain real property was owned by the said plaintiff prior to the time of entering into said marriage and that said real property was the separate property of said plaintiff, and in addition thereto said plaintiff and defendant have arrived at a fair and equitable value of the community property acquired by said plaintiff and defendant during their coveture, in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00).

That it further appearing to the court that satisfactory payment has been made to the said defendant of the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) as a fair and equitable division of the community property, and the court finds that the said sum is a fair division of the community property and hereby ratifies and confirms said settlement.

The court further finds that the defendant is a proper person to have the care, control and custody of the minor child, being the mother of said minor child, and the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per month is a fair and equitable allowance to be made for the support and maintenance of said minor child until said minor child shall have reached the age of eighteen years.

The court further finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint have been fully verified, and the court being fully advised in the matter, the court finds that it is a proper matter for entry of decree of divorce in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff, Ray Stanley, and the Defendant, Dorothy Stanley, be and the same are hereby dissolved and a decree of divorce be and is hereby entered in favor of the plaintiff, Ray Stanley, and against the defendant, Dorothy Stanley.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the community settlement in the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) having been paid by the said plaintiff to the defendant, be and is hereby ratified and confirmed to be a full and complete settlement of all of the community interests of the said defendant.

That it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff is the sole owner as his sole, individual property and estate in an undivided one-half interest in and to the S½NW¼ Sec. 22, Twp. 9 South, Range 23, E. B. M., Minidoka County, Idaho, and that any claim of title of the said defendant, either as community interest or otherwise, is hereby forever quieted in the plaintiff and the said defendant be and is hereby forever barred of claiming or assert - ing any claim in or to said property.

That it is further ordered, adjusted and decreed that the defendant be granted the care, control and custody of the minor child, Elna Stanley, subject to the right of the plaintiff to see said minor child at all reasonable times and places.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decredd that the said defendant shall have and receive from the said plaintiff the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per month for the support and maintenance of said minor child until the said minor child shall have reached the age of eighteen years.

No 2565
Filed and entered

Lillian Dickson
Clerk,

On this the 27th day of July, 1948, the above entitled action came on for trial before the Court at chambers, plaintiff being present in person and by her attorney, Frank D. Ryan, and it appearing to the Court that the defendant has appeared in this action by his attorneys, Norris & Norris of Payette, Idaho, and prior to the trial of said action, said defendant through his said attorneys filed a motion to withdraw his demurrer and refuses to plead further, and the Court thereupon entered an order withdrawing such demurrer and providing that the defendant is in default, and thereupon, on motion of attorney for plaintiff, the default of said defendant was duly entered, and the Court thereupon proceeded to hear the testimony adduced on behalf of said plaintiff, it appearing to the Court that said defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States of America or any other country, and that said defendant is engaged in civilian employment in Payette, Idaho.

The Court further finds that plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Payette, Idaho, on the 2nd day of July, 1929, and that they have been bona fide residents of Payette, Idaho, since their said marriage, and there has been born to said marriage one child by the name of Edward Frederick Browning, born September 17, 1936; That there stands of record in plaintiff's name in the City of Payette, Payette County, Idaho, the following deseribed real estate, to-wit:

> Beginning at a point located 754 feet South and 660 feet West of the Northeast corner of the Northwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 28, Township 9 North, Range 5 West of the Boise Meridian, and running thence West 200 feet; thence South 34 feet; thence East 200 feet; thence North 34 feet, to the point of beginning;

That since the acquiring of said real estate the community of plaintiff and defendant have invested community funds in the moving of a house on said premises and improving the same; That said plaintiff and defendant have purchased under contract of C. F. Browning and Lillie G. Browning the following described real estate situated in Payette County, Idaho, to-wit:

> The West Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 12, Township 9 North, Range 5 West of B.M. together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, including 5 shares of stock in the Lower Payette Ditch Company; and on which said contract there is unpaid at the present time a balance of $1,179.00.

That the parties hereto have under date of the 16th day of July, 1948, entered into a written contract pursuant to which they have agreed as to the division of the community property and real estate hereinbefore described, as well as the custody of said minor child, Edward Frederick Browning, which said agreement has been by the plaintiff introduced in evidence and marked plaintiff's "Exhibit A", and the same is by reference made a part hereof, and approved by the Court, and the care and custody of said minor child until further order of the Court is during the vacation period 1948, and the vacation period each year thereafter during the minority of said minor child, awarded to plaintiff, subject, however, to said defendant upon said child's request having the right to take such child upon a fishing trip of 10 days duration during each summer vacation period.

That said defendant during the regular 9 months school session beginning in the fall of 1948, and each year thereafter during the minority of said minor child, including the Christmas vacation period, is hereby awarded, until further order of the Court, the care and custody of said minor child, the said child having a right upon its request during the period it is in the custody of either plaintiff or defendant, to spend the weekend with the parent then not having the custody of such child. That the parent during the period she or he has the legal custody of said child as herein provided shall be solely responsible for the support and maintenance of said child and the furnishing of him with clothes and such other things as are necessary for the welfare of said child, except in the event of any serious illness of said child requiring medical services and/or hospitalization, then each of the parties shall pay one-half thereof, each party, however, to be consulted as to the employment of medical services, hospitalization, etc., the same to meet with the approval of both parties. In the event either party shall fail to provide for said minor child or furnish him proper medical attention during the period of custody by the party then being entitled to such custody under the terms hereof, so that the other party by reason of such neglect on the part of the parent having such custody, is required to or does take the care and custody of said minor, and the party so failing or neglecting to provide maintenance and care and medical attention for said child shall be wholly responsible and liable to pay the other party for such expenses incurred for the care, maintenance and medical attention for said child during the period the party who is then entitled to the custody failed to furnish such care and maintenance and medical attention, nothing, however, in this clause being intended to alter the terms heretofore made of each party paying for medical care and hospitalization when properly incurred for the benefit of said child while in the custody of the person then entitled to the custody.

That the Court finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint in regard to the acts of cruelty set forth therein are true and that plaintiff by reason of such conduct on the part of defendant is entitled to a divorce from defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty. The Court further finds that pursuant to the agreement entered into between plaintiff and defendant, "Exhibit A", the said plaintiff is not entitled to receive any alimony, suit money or attorney fees now or at any time hereafter, and that the support, care, custody and maintenance of said minor child shall be, subject to the further order of the Court, in accordance with the terms of said agreement and of this Decree.

WHEREFORE, It is considered ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, be, and the same are, hereby dissolved, and each of the parties restored to the status of single persons, and each of the parties are barred and restrained from inheriting from or through the other. That the custody of said minor child, Edward Frederick Browning, is hereby awarded to plaintiff during the vacation season of 1948 and during the school vacation period each year thereafter subject to said defendant taking said child on not to exceed a ten day fishing trip, and the custody of said child during the nine months school period beginning in the fall of 1948, and including Xmas vacation, and continuing thereafter during the minority of said child is awarded to defendant, with the right of either party to have said child on weekends when said child requests the same and asks to spend the weekend with the parent then not having the custody of said child. This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of July, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Harry Rankin, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service made upon him within the State of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action and is not now in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of the defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks immediatel preceding the commencement of this action was a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 11th day of June, 1948, and ever since said date have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated the plaintiff in a cruel manner during a large part of the time of such marriage; that the defendant was during such time a heavy user of intoxicating liquors and abused plaintiff by cursing her, and often struck her with his fists, blacked her eyes, and one time knocked her down and rendered her unconscious; that his actions became so bad that the land-lord where they were living required them to vacate because of his disturbing the peace; and by other similar acts; that such acts were without cause on the part of plaintiff, and caused plaintiff great physical and mental suffering, humiliation and shame; that there was born as the issue of such marriage a son named Robert Rankin, born May 31, 1940; that said child is now with the plaintiff; that plaintiff desires and should have awarded to her the care, custody and control of such minor child, she being a fit and proper person to have same so awarded to her; that the property settlement agreement entered into between said plaintiff and defendant should be approved by this Court, and that the defendant should be required to pay to the plaintiff for the support and care of said child the sum of $50.00 per month in accordance with the terms and provisions of said agreement.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant; that said child should awarded to the plaintiff; that said property settlement agreement should be approved; and that the defendant should be required to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $50.00 per month for the support and care of said minor child and to continue during the minority of said child if he shall live to attain the age of majority.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Margaret R. Rankin, and the defendant, Harry Rankin, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all of the obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That plaintiff be and she is hereby given the care, custody and control of the minor child of said marriage, Robert Rankin, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That the defendant pay to the plaintiff for the care and support of said minor child the sum of $50.00 per month, the first of such payments to be made on the 1st day of August, 1948, and to be paid on or before that date each month thereafter during the minority of said child if he shall live to attain the age of majority.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That the property settlement agreement made between the parties to this action be and the same is hereby approved and confirmed.

From an examination of the record and files in this action it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that, pursuant to an order made by the clerk of this court, the summons in this action was duly and regularly served upon the defendant by publication thereof in the Wallace Miner, a newspaper published in Shoshone County, Idaho, and designated as the one most likely to give notice to the defendant of this action for a full period of four weeks, and that not less than twenty-six days intervened between the first and last publications; and that a copy of the summons and complaint herein was mailed in the postoffice at Wallace, Idaho, addressed to the defendant at his last known address and place of residence, postage prepaid, on May 18, 1948; that after the completion of the service of the summons, as aforesaid, the defendant failed and neglected to appear in said action, and demur to or answer the complaint within the time allowed by law, and the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered and filed and endorsed upon the complaint on July 26, 1948.

The plaintiff and a witness in her behalf were called, sworn, and testified concerning the allegations of the complaint, and the court being fully advised in the premises, and the making and filing of findings of fact and conclusions of law having been waived by the default of the defendant, with full knowledge of the facts of this action, the court now makes and rēnders the following judgment and

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 2nd day of August, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED To the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint; and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by the failure of the defendant to appear and plead herein.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Court sitting without a jury, at Chambers, in Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 4th day of August, 1948. Merrill and Merrill, Attorneys at Law, appeared for and on behalf of the plaintiff, Ruth G. Armstrong, and the defendant, St. George Armstrong, appeared in person and by his attorneys, Zener and Peterson.

Both oral and documentary evidence, consisting of a property settlement agreement properly signed by said parties, was introduced for and on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint, and no evidence was introduced on behalf of the defendant in support of his answer to the plaintiff's complaint.

Upon the evidence introduced for and on behalf of the plaintiff, the Court finds that all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and that a decree of divorce should be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the fault of the defendant; and

It further appearing to the Court, and the Court finds, that the parties have heretofore entered into a property settlement, the agreement of the property settlement being introduced in evidence as aforesaid, which said property settlement pursuant to said agreement the Court finds to be fair and just and that the same should be approved by the Court; and

It further appearing to the Court, and the Court finds, that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been specifically waived in writing; and

The Court being fully advised in the law and the premises:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Ruth G. This matter having come on to be heard at Chambers in Pocatello, Idaho, this 28th day of August, 1948, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through her attorney, Louis F. Racine, Jr., and the defendant having failed to appear either in person or by attorney, the Court has proceeded to hear the evidence from which it appears and the Court finds:

That all of the material allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true and sustained by testimony, free and clear from legal objections as to its competence, admissibility, and sufficiency; that said defendant was regularly and duly served on the 3rd day of August, 1948; that twenty days have elapsed since the date of such service and the default of said defendant has been duly entered in said cause; that the defendant did not appear nor adduce any evidence; that the parties hereto have heretofore entered into an agreement respecting the division of property and the custody of the child of said marriage, which agreement has been received in evidence and which the Court finds to be fair and equitable; that under and by virtue of such agreement the parties have agreed that the child of said marriage, Sharon Schutt, age five(5) years, should be under the sole care, control and custody of her mother, the plaintiff in this action, with the right of reasonable visitation on the part of the defendant; that in full and final settlement of the property, both real and personal, acquired by the parties hereto during their marriage, and to the date of said agreement it is agreed under and by virtue of the agreement received in evidence, that the plaintiff shall take for her sole and separate property all of the household furniture and fixtures, the home of the parties, warranty deed from the defendant herein to the plaintiff having heretofore been executed and recorded, and that the agreement further provided for the payment of $250.00 in cash from the defendant to the plaintiff, which amount has been received by the plaintiff; that under said agreement it is provided that the defendant shall take for his sole and separate property the savings account of parties in the First Security Bank of Idaho, Pocatello, in the amount of $44.16, the postal savings account of the parties in the amount of $500.00, two trailer houses of an approximate value of $3500.00, an International pick-up truck of the reasonable value of $400.00, and that such articles of personalty have been received by the defendant and are now in his possession.

As a conclusion of law from the forgoing facts, the court determines that the plaintiff is entitled to a divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that there is one child, Sharon Schutt, age five(5), of said marriage; that the plaintiff desires custody of said child and is a proper person to have such custody; that the agreement of the parties as to the division of real and personal property acquired by the parties during said marriage is fair and equitable; that all and singular, the law and the facts are by this Court here understood and fully considered.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the marriage between the plaintiff, Ruth May Schutt, and the defendant, William Eugene Schutt, be dissolved on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the same is hereby dissolved on said ground; that the said parties are each of them free and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and all of the obligations thereof; that the plaintiff and the defendant and each of them is restored to the status of single persons; that the plaintiff is a proper person to have control and custody of the child of said marriage, Sharon Schutt, age five(5), and hereby is given custody and control of said child, with the right of visitation at all reasonable times and places on the part of the defendant; that the community property of said parties be and hereby is ordered to be distributed in accordance with the terms of the agreement between the parties as admitted in evidence and as the terms thereof are incorporated in this decree; ~~that the plaintiff be restored to her maiden name of Ruth May Keane.~~

| LESLIE V. SILLS, Plaintiff, vs. DOROTHY FRANCIS SILLS, Defendant. | JUDGMENT AND DECREE |

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable Hugh A. Baker, one of the judges of the above entitled Court in chambers at Rupert, in the County of Minidoka, State of Idaho, on the 3rd day of August, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of his attorneys. The defendant failed to appear either in person or by counsel. Thereupon, it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that due and legal constructive service of summons had been had herein upon the defendant by the publication thereof once each week for four (4) successive weeks, in five (5) issues of the Burley Bulletin, a weekly newspaper published at Burley, Cassia County, State of Idaho; first such publication having been made in the issue of said newspaper published on the 15th day of June, 1948, and the last such publication having been made in the issue of said newspaper published on the 13th day of July, 1948, and more than twenty-six (26) days having intervened between the first and last such publication. It further appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that a copy of the said summons and complaint had been mailed to the defendant at her last known address outside the State of Idaho, enclosed in a sealed envelope with postage thereon prepaid, and that an affidavit had been made and filed herein on behalf of the plaintiff in compliance with the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, from which it appeared that the defendant is not now, and for more than six (6) months last past, has not been in the Military Service of the United States or its Allies. It further appeared to the Court that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff has expired, and that no appearance, answer or demurrer has been made or filed herein by, or on behalf of the defendant. Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Lowe, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for her failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff, was, by the Court, ordered entered.

Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and documentary evidence introduced, and the plaintiff rested. The Court, being fully advised in the premises, having fully considered the matter, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant, and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that the plaintiff have judgment and decree as prayed in his complaint.

NOW THEREFORE, By virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, canceled, annulled and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby restored to the status of a single person, wholly discharged and relieved from any and all duties or obligations owing to the defendant on account of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant.
